After many unresolved emails through em50951, I think it may be a bit fun to test if any email actually works properly. If not, I'll proceed to call again, perhaps every number until I find one that works.

Luckily, after more than a month, I was finally able to contact someone through 886-6-208-5608, perhaps it was Stacy, I didn't ask her name. She was able to answer a few questions, but one remains:

sent on 2/27/2016 to em50460, 3/16/2016 to em50951 and again on 3/17/2016 in reply to Eva Huang and again on 4/11/2016 in reply to Stacy Lin:

"Hey! Quite some time ago I asked about getting a waiver for the application fee, is that possible? I copied the text from that email below:

I wonder, would the school be able to waive the application fee?

This is my current situation:

I'm currently traveling Taiwan living out of a tiny backpack, hopping friend's places, doing work exchange, etc. I'm even selling my film equipment (<http://www.ebay.com/itm/121809497395>) just to pay time and potential scooter repairs so that I can get to the warmer south where I could freely camp and teach or farm or exploit capitalism for some quick money. I know, not very pretty from a prospective student, but, let's call it a social experiment. :)

If not, then I may unfortunately only be able to apply to NTU, which itself costs 2000ntd. I personally should have money in time by the time, but I would dislike money to hinder me from applying from earlier."

After this is resolved, I can (or should not) pay the fee and finally be done with the process, and will be eternally thankful less bureaucratic purely capitalistic institutions.
