

Hey!

I sent a message earlier today about paying this fee later, then I Google'd, then I found this fee waiver form.

This is my current situation:

I'm currently in a small town in Taiwan living out of a backpack and currently staying at a hostel for $3.5 per day, selling my camcorder (<http://www.ebay.com/itm/121809497395>) and iPad just to pay time at the hostel and potential scooter repairs so that I can get to the warmer south where I could freely camp and teach or farm or exploit capitalism for some quick money. I know, not very pretty from a prospective student, but, let's call it a social experiment. :)
